ABOUT PAVILION

Career journeys in the high-growth world can be tough to navigate on your own. That's why Pavilion created a place where executives can come together to share knowledge, learn new skills, and find guidance to get through every professional twist and turn.

Pavilion is an international community of members from the world's fastest-growing companies, run by high-growth leaders, for high-growth leaders. Pavilion's mission is to give every leader the resources they need to unlock and achieve their professional potential.

Executive level training and certifications such as CRO School, The Role of a Leader and Coaching for High Performance designed by industry leaders.

Unrivaled peer to peer learning opportunities through interpersonal and group interactions like small councils and discipline focused sub-communities willing and eager to help executives handle their difficult challenges.

Access to industry specific data, templates and surveys on the most relevant topics for any leader.

Caters specifically to execs with targeted Roundtable discussions, live and virtual events.

"Pavilion's Lunch Roulettes, courses, mentorship opportunities, and conversations have yielded more value than I expected. I will be a lifetime member."

- Dominic Daley, VP Sales Gusto

WHY SPONSORSHIP?

Sponsoring an Executive for Pavilion membership is showing an investment in your top talent to perform at their highest level, maximizing your return on investment in them and accelerating the growth of your organization.

Pavilion has 4,000+ revenue executives globally from Seed to Public companies

"Pavilion is a must have resource for any revenue leader. I have been able to count on the thought leaders and colleagues in the group to offer excellent guidance."

- George Leith, Chief Customer Officer, Vendasta

Each of Pavilion's training, courses, in-person and virtual events and community is all inclusive in the annual Executive price of $2700.

Pavilion